Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to certain points connected with the combined leave sanctioned to Mr. R. H. Campbell, Private Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja. Under the terms of Mr. Campbell's engagement, he "will continue to enjoy the benefit of the rules of the British Civil Service Regulations as if he were an active member of the Civil Service in regard to leave and leave allowances".

2. The Secretary of State for India has recently sanctioned certain "Fundamental Rules" "to regulat the conditions of the service of the Civil Services i India which replace the substantial rules in the Civi Service Regulations in respect of leave, etc." (Vide letter of Government of India, Finance Department, No.1079/C.S.R. dated the 26th October 1921). Under section 75 of these rules, the benefit of the special leave rules contained in the Fundamental Rules is admissible to those admitted by the Government of India to the benefits of the same. Mr. Campbell claims that he is entitled to the benefit of these rules.

3. If the benefit of these rules is extended to Mr. Campbell he would be entitled to treat the first four months as privilege leave on full average salary and the rest of the period also as furlough on full average pay. But in cases where combined leave is taken in this manner no extension of furlough is admissible. Mr. Campbell requests however that if he has an occasion to extend his furlough he may be permitted to commute his leave into "privilege leave on full average pay for 4 months and extended furlough o half average pay" refunding the amount that may have been overdrawn.

4. Thirdly Mr. Campbell requests that he may b given the benefit of the special rates of exchange sanctioned by the Government of India for payment of salaries in England in the case of their officers, i.
1s-4d. the rupee for the period of the privilege leave and 1s.-6d. for the period on furlough (subject to certain maxima). By this arrangement Mr. Campbell wil receive £200 per mensem for the first four months of privilege leave and £222 per mensem for the last four months of furlough.

5. The Financial Secretary is of opinion that under his contract Mr. Campbell is entitled to the privilege of the leave rules admitted to the Indian Civil Services and that his requests are therefore admissible.

6. The papers are submitted for His Highness' gracious perusal before issue of orders.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

Dated, Bangalore, the ~~19~~ March 1922.

FROM

T. Satyaraj Chetty Esq., B.A., ~~M. N. KRISHNA RAO, ESQ., B.A.,~~ ~~Offg.~~ Comptroller to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

K. M a t t h a n, ESQ., B.A., Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e ~~Department~~

SIR,

Adverting to Government Notification No.5245/C.B.174-21-3 dated the 18th February 1922, sanctioning eight months' combined leave to Mr. R.H. Campbell, Private Secretary to H.H. the Maharaja, I have the honor to state that if the leave is sanctioned under Rules 81(a)&(b)i of the Fundamental Rules made by the Secretary of State under Section 96-B of the Govt. of India Act published in Govt. of India Finance Department No.1079 dated 26th October 1921, Mr.Campbell has the option to elect to draw full or half average pay for the period of leave as laid down in Fundamental Rule 87(a). If he elects to draw full average pay for the entire period of absence, it would debar him from extending the leave, unless the extention is under note to Rule 81 of the Fundamental Rules. As an alternative to this, there would be no objection to Mr. Campbell availing himself of the full period of privilege leave and furlough at his credit which would enable him to extend the leave, if necessary, beyond eight months, if he exercises the option of drawing full average pay for the period of privilege leave and half average pay for the rest of the period under Fundamental Rule 81(d). I therefore request early orders of Government as to how the period of absence in excess of four months should now be treated, and whether the leave salary should be fixed in rupees or sterling, and the maximum to which the leave salary should be limited.

I enclose a copy of demi official letter No.798 dated 21/22nd February 1922 received from Mr. Campbell in which he has asked me to intimate the rate of exchange at which the furlough allowance of £ 1,000/- a year will be converted apparently for payment in England. The maximum of £ 1,000/- a year was the limit up to which a member of the Indian Civil Service could draw under Article 314, Civil Service Regulations (5th Edition, second reprint) and this maximum has recently been raised to £111/- a month, under the revised Articl 316 C.S.R. (Vide Government of India Resolution No.1367 C.S.R. dated 29th July 1920) and the same limit is also prescribed in Rule 89 of the Fundamental Rules.

Leave-salary due to an Officer under the Fundamental Rules being made subject to the maxima prescribed in Rule 87 of the Fundamental Rules, half or full average salary payable to the officer has to be converted into sterling and it has since been authorised by the Government of India to be converted at the rate of exchange for telegraphic transfers from Calcutta on London on the date on which each payment becomes due, the rate of exchange being subject to the following minima -

(a) In respect of leave salary due for the first four months of a period of leave on average pay 1sh 4d. per rupee.
(b) In respect of all other leave salary - 1sh 6d per rupee.

I believe Mr. Campbell will draw the allowances for the first four months in rupees in India, and as for the allowances due for the rest of the period, I request orders of Government as to whether I may authorise Messrs. Coutts & Co., to disburse his leave allowance converted at 1sh 6d per rupee. Calculated at this rate, the leave allowance admissible to Mr. Campbell will be as follows:-

(i) If he elects to take eight months' leave on average pay for the entire period,

(a) for the first four months Rs. 3,000 which, converted at 1sh 4d. gives £ 200. He may draw Rs. 3,000 in India or £ 200 in England

(b) for the second four months, he will be entitled to Rs. 2,222/- if the allowance is paid in India or £ 222 if paid in England.

(ii) If he elects to take leave on half average salary:-

(a) for the first four months as in (i)(a) above.
(b) for the second four months, Rs. 1,111/- if paid in India, or £ 111 if paid in England.

I may also add that the sanction to the leave under Fundamental Rule 81, and to the leave allowance under Rule 89 thereof, is subject to the main condition that Government approve of extending the benefits of the special leave rules to Mr. Campbell. (Vide Rule 75 of the Fundamental Rules.)

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Comptroller.

Dear Sir,

I have just received a letter No.8167/[redacted].A.D.-20-20 dated the 2nd instant from the Comptroller to Government on the subject of your leave and leave allowances. It is learnt that a copy of this letter has been already forwarded to you. I shall be obliged by being favoured with your remarks on the points raised by the Comptroller.

Yours sincerely,

D.O.No. GAD7561

Comptroller's Office, Bangalore, 6th March, 1922.

Dear Mr. Mathan,

I send herewith a letter addressed to you by Mr. Campbell which he has asked me in person to forward to you with my observations

There are only two points requiring orders of Government. The first is the extension of the special leave rules in the -- fundamental rules to Mr. Campbell. Special sanction of Government is necessary for the extension as in the G.O.No.G6064-7/G.M. 159-12-4, dated 3rd April 1913, Mr. Campbell was specially -- permitted to avail himself of the privileges in respect of leave granted to officers of the Indian Civil Service in British India.

In regard to the commutation retrospectively of leave on the average pay to leave on half average pay, after the expiration of 8 months, in the event of Mr. Campbell requiring further leave, there is no express provision in Fundamental Rules permitting of such a commutation.

As Mr. Campbell anticipates that some time would elapse -- before Government would finally decide the question of his leave allowances, he has asked me to arrange for the payment of his -- privilege leave allowance immediately in England, pending the settlement of the question of the allowances for the remaining period. As intimated to you in my letter No.8167/G.A.D.545 dated 2nd instant Mr. Campbell may under Rule 89 of the Fundamental Rules be permitted to draw for the 1st four months leave allowance at £200 per mensem. As he has requested me to arrange for the payment of his leave allowances for March current falling due on the 1st April, by this week's mail, I request that you will kindly communicate to me immediately orders of Government for my arranging for the payment accordingly at £200/- per mensem mensem for the 1st four months of his leave.

Yours sincerely,

Balyanna Chetty

To K. Mathan Esq
Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore

Dear Sir

In reply to your D.O Letter No 5514 CB of 4th March 1922, I beg to submit the following remarks on the Comptroller's Letter referred to.

2. With reference to the concluding paragraph of the Comptroller's letter I submit that I am entitled, under the terms of my Engagement with the Mysore Govt: to the benefit of the concessions in the Leave Rules recently introduced in British India & incorporated in the Civil Service Regulations. The special sanction of Govt: is I submit not needed in my case under Rule 75 of the Fundamental Rules. I may mention that the Hon. Mr. W.S Barton was recently given the benefit of these Rules without any recent sanction

(1) Rules apply to all members of the Indian Civil Service whether I am right or (2) wrong in this interpretation I take it that His Majesty's Govt will see no objection to giving me the benefit of this new Rule (3) If this be sanctioned I shall elect, for the period of my Leave granted to me, to draw full average pay for the whole period of my Leave under Fundamental Rule 87. A.
(4) I note that if I so elect I am debarred from extending my leave, but in the event of my being obliged to apply for an extension on medical grounds, I presume that there would be no objection to my Commuting my Leave into "Privilege Leave on full average pay for 4 months + Extended furlough on half average pay" refunding the amount that I may have overdrawn I hope it may not be necessary to apply for an extension.
(5) My reference to £1000 a year on

2

THE RESIDENCY, BANGALORE,
S. INDIA.

My letter to the Comptroller was made in error. I had not read the Fundamental Rules when under the mistaken impression that £1000 a year was still the maximum Furlough Pay to which I was entitled.

To sum up:—
I would like to draw full average pay for the whole period of my leave & to draw that pay in England. This would amount to:— £200 a month for the first four months and £222 for the second four months

I should be very grateful if orders can be passed on the Comptroller's letter before I leave for England - I am leaving Mysore for Bombay on March 22nd

Yours sincerely
R. Campbell
